

Contents

Part One: All About Divorce

A. Doing Your Own Divorce	11
1. Can you do your own divorce? Should you?
2. What “do your own divorce” means
3. Divorce basics
Grounds for divorce, Jurisdiction (power of the court)
Residency requirements, Waiting periods,
Notice to your spouse, Change of name
4. How to start a divorce—Petitioners and Respondents
5. Three ways to get it done
6. Solving divorce problems
7. When you should get some help
8. Who can help? How much will it cost?
9. Some common questions and answers
10. Looking ahead
B. Dividing Property and Debts	37
1. Cases where there is no property
2. Cases where there is some property
3. Understanding your estate
4. When property is divided by the court
5. Dividing it by agreement
6. How to transfer titles to property
7. Wills, trusts, and beneficiaries
C. Children: Custody and Visitation	53
1. Generally
2. Custody (conservatorship)
3. Visitation (possession)
4. Class required for parents?
D. Child Support and Alimony	59
E. Marital Settlement Agreements	67
1. The Approved Decree
2. The Marital Settlement Agreement

Contents

Part Two: How to Do Your Own Divorce

1. Introducing the Forms	75
2. Checklists	76
3. How to Use the Forms	79
A. General instructions
B. The caption
C. Petitioner/Respondent
D. Pro Se
E. Names
F. Protecting privacy
G. Copies
4. How to File Your Papers	83
5. The Petition	85
6. Notice to Your Spouse	99
A. The Waiver
B. The Citation
7. The Decree	107
8. The Statistics Form	119
9. The Withholding Forms	123
10. The Military Affidavit	131
11. The Hearing	133
A. Are you ready?
B. Getting into court
C. The day of the hearing
D. Troubleshooting guide
Appendix A: Affidavit of Inability to Pay	143
Appendix B: Special custody rules for military personnel	145
Appendix C: How to fill out the Special Warranty Deed	147
Divorce Forms	149
List of forms in book	150
CD with forms, codes, agreement and more! Inside back cover	